

City of San Marcos

630 E. Hopkins
San Marcos, Texas 78666

NEWS

September 7, 2010
For Immediate Release

Contact: Heather Powdrill, Veterans Day Parade Committee
Phone: 512.393.8400

Entries Invited for San Marcos' Veterans Day Parade

Honoring All Who Served will be the theme of the 2010 Veterans Day Parade on Saturday, November 6 sponsored by the City of San Marcos with assistance from the Veterans Affairs Advisory Committee and local veterans' organizations.

Veterans groups, military organizations, civic clubs, bands, drill teams, public officials, equestrians, youth teams, classic vehicles and others are invited to join the Veterans Day Parade. The parade will begin at 10 a.m. and wind through downtown San Marcos. A popular free biscuit and gravy breakfast will again be served on the Hays County Courthouse lawn beginning at 8:30 a.m.

Nomination forms for grand marshal should be submitted to Lisa Morris at lmorris@sanmarcostx.gov or they can be dropped off or mailed to the Parks and Recreation office at the Grant Harris Building, located at 401 E. Hopkins Street, San Marcos, 78666.

Nominations must include the full name and relevant details of the individual's military service, along with detailed contact information, including a telephone number. The nomination form is posted on the city website www.sanmarcostx.gov/departments/parks/index.htm. The nomination deadline is Oct. 1.

Criteria for nomination include:

- Must be a San Marcos area resident
- Must have served in the U.S. military during a time of military conflict
- Must have been honorably discharged from the service
- Must be willing to share his or her military service memories

The deadline for entering the parade is October 16, 2010. Veterans Day Parade applications are posted on the city website www.sanmarcostx.gov. Area individuals, educational institutions, businesses and organizations are invited to "join the parade." For more information, call Parks and Recreation at (512) 393-8400.

###